Adult Summer Reading Program!
June 25 - August 17

The theme for the 2012 Adult Summer Reading Program is “Between the Covers,” focusing on “things of the night.” Launch date is Monday, June 25. Participants read library books to receive tickets for prize drawings. In this eight-week summer program, participants choose books from any or all of eight categories.

Keep track of the books you read in the booklet you receive when you sign up for the program. Booklists of suggested reads are included in the booklet. Displays will be set up representing each category.

Eight raffle baskets will be displayed around the Library. Every time you read a book, you receive a raffle ticket. Enter that ticket for the basket you wish to win. You only need to read one book for a chance to win a basket. Registration for this program continues throughout the summer. Participants who read three books receive a ticket to attend the program finale on Friday, August 17 at 7 p.m.
