OF THE WOODWARD MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Membership Information

Be a Friend of the Woodward Memorial Library

Who are the Friends?

Friends are a group of citizens who believe that an excellent library is essential to a community and who work to promote and assist the library in fulfilling its mission.

What do Friends do?

Friends promote library services to the public.

Friends sponsor education programs for both children and adults.

Friends assist and support library staff with special events.

Why should I be a Friend?

Your Friends membership helps support library projects and services that make Woodward Memorial Library a valuable resource to our community.

The more Friends (members) we have, the greater our impact is in helping our library.

Being a Friend will give you the satisfaction of helping to support and contribute to our wonderful library.

Friends have the benefit of early bird admission to the used book sales.

How can I become a Friend?

(Just complete this application and return it with your cash or check to the library!)
